Why Karelia?

The convenient location of Petrozavodsk offers great opportunities for traveling around Russia and Europe. You can quickly get to Moscow and St. Petersburg by train, bus or plane. Karelia also shares almost 800 km long border with Finland, so Helsinki, Joensuu or Lappeenranta can be excellent travel destinations during holidays.

Petrozavodsk, which is the capital of Karelia, is a town located on the shore of Lake Onega. Wonderful and picturesque nature in combination with rich cultural and business life of citizens will be a great addition to the versatile students’ activity.

Population: >270 000 people
Apartment rent cost: 12000 - 15000 RUB/month
University dormitory cost: 500 - 1000 RUB/month
Average meal price: 200 RUB
Public transport cost: 38 RUB/trip

Contacts

Petrozavodsk State University
185910 Russia, Karelia, Petrozavodsk
Lenina str., 33
https://petrsu.ru/en

Academic Mobility Department
Petrozavodsk State University
185035 Russia, Karelia, Petrozavodsk
Anokhina str., 20, room 405
interdep@petrsu.ru

Learn Russian and study at Petrozavodsk State University

https://petrsu.ru/en
Would you like to study at a Russian university? Take your first step with the Pre-University Foundation Program of Petrozavodsk State University. At PetrSU you can start or continue learning the Russian language and study specific subjects in different areas in order to prepare for studying on Bachelor’s, Specialist’s or Master’s degree programs at PetrSU or another Russian university.

Specialization of the programs:
- Biomedical Engineering and Technologies
- Humanities
- Economics

Period of training: 1 academic year (October – June)

For more info write to prepf@petrsu.ru

Institutes of PetrSU
- Institute of Mathematics and IT
- Institute of Physics and Technology
- Institute of Medicine
- Institute of Biology, Ecology and Agricultural Technologies
- Institute of Forestry, Mining and Construction Sciences
- Institute of Physical Education, Sports and Tourism
- Institute of Pedagogy and Psychology
- Institute of Foreign Languages
- Institute of Philology
- Institute of History, Political and Social Sciences
- Institute of Economics and Law

Petrozavodsk State University is the Flagship University of the Republic of Karelia and one of the leading universities in Northwest Russia.

- Founded in 1940
- Trained more than 70,000 qualified specialists
- Offers over 100 educational programs
- Foreign language testing (TORFL, TOEFL, TOLES)
- Exchange programs with over 20 foreign universities
- Participant and organizer of dozens of international, all-Russian and regional conferences and seminars every year.
- 350+ international students from other countries
- Center of official and notarized translations
- 11 dormitories
- A wide range of summer/winter schools and short-term programs